Economy Days Here For Village Departments

Question Box Has Some Real Inquiries

The Arlington Heights village board did not attempt to answer the queries that were found in the public question box but from remarks by the members some of the suggestions will bear fruit. The inquiries read by the village clerk were as follows:

"If the village has a fire ordinance, which specifies that each house containing more than one family, must have two or more exits, why is this not being enforced?"

"Why does not the water department use a short piece of hose when flushing hydrants instead of washing out the lawns in the parkways?"

"To Village Board
For Question Box
Y Close taverns at 12 and allow gambling until 12:30 and 2:30 a.m.
Y Allow bookies to remain open collecting no license, no permit, no nothing, but make a peanut salesman take out a license?
10 or more questions to follow.
Mr. Business Man."

"Food for Thought"

"Why not repeal the Milk ordinance of the city of Arlington Heights? The State does not require pasteurization, but the cow must be tested against tuberculosis. Palatine rejected the ordinance when it was brought up before the Board many years ago."

"Only people with a doctor's certificate are allowed to use and drink raw T.B. tested milk in Arlington Heights. Not one farmer among one thousand uses pasteurized milk. The Old Peoples Home do not use pasteurized or sterilized milk—they have their own cows."

"Milk used with water to increase the quantity and with such chemicals as peroxide and formaldehyde for preservatives has been sold in large quantities which is against all State and Federal Pure Food laws. However, some of the ordinances and laws are rather ridiculous and have been treated with great laxity."

"Why deprive this good woman from selling milk when the cow has passed a T.B. test? One should give her credit for making her own way in the world instead of being a burden and on the relief roll. This must be very discouraging to a woman who is endeavoring to make an honest living."

"A Citizen."

The sewer department reported to the board that the effectiveness of the treatment plant in treating sewage is being partly hindered by failure of water to run freely thru Weller Creek in the village of Mt. Prospect. This is particularly true in the obstructions near the bridge on Elmhurst road. Attorney Thal agreed to take the matter up with officials of the drainage district.

Building Commissioner, Paul Taege, reported $10,000 in permits issued for building and alterations for the month of August.

The street department has been out with white paint installing slow signs near dangerous intersections. The high school board was granted permission to use the municipal building for the special election Saturday.

Mrs. Sachs, head of the Chicago office of the T. L. will appear before the board at its next meeting. Failure of insurance company to settle injury claim of Frank Gieske was reported due to delay in forwarding report on the case. To avoid similar occurrence, the head of each department of the village is made responsible for the filling of reports covering injuries in their departments.

The police department has worn out a set of tires and orders were issued for their replacement.

The suggestion of a subway beneath Northwest highway at two streets was discussed pro and con. The state highway department would be asked to pay the cost. Points against the installation were:

Collection of paper and rubbish that would result;
Necessity of keeping it lighted;
Unwillingness of women to use the subways after dark;
Inability of aged people to use the stairs;

Probable failure of children to use the subway in place of the street.

Arlington Cub Scouts To Hold First Rally Invite Parents, Boys

A program of movies and Cub Scout activities will be held at the North School Friday, Sept. 9, at 7:30 p. m., followed by refreshments.

All boys of Cub Scout age 9 to 11 and their parents are cordially invited to attend this pack meeting.

The South Side Pack committee invites all boys of either North or South side to join their pack. If you are interested be there Friday evening.

ROOF FIRE

Arlington Heights fire department was called out to put out a barn roof blaze on north Vail street last Friday morning. Sparks from a nearby bonfire caused the fire, which was easily extinguished.

Need of Economy Is Stressed to Members Of Village Board

The village of Arlington Heights is upon the economy wagon. With no bills paid since June 20, except salaries the board will scrutinize every future expenditure. The present need is about $7,000.

The customary August sale of tax warrants is expected to relieve the immediate situation. The tax warrants for the 1937 taxes, totaling $15,500, of which $12,000 have been paid. Receipts from the second tax collection will be used to retire the balance of that issue.

Attorney Thal was authorized to enter in negotiations with the Arlington Heights National Bank.

With the need of economy fresh in their minds, the board came near turning thumbs down on a bill of Tony Callahan for four hours labor at $1.50 an hour supervising the operation of a cement mixer borrowed from the park district. The members admitted that WPA rate for such work was $1.50 but if the park board can not loan a cement mixer without a custodian at $1.50 an hour going along with it, the village may attach custodian to the village truck the next time the park board desires to borrow it.

Extensive collection of unpaid water bills has reduced the current delinquency to $433.72. Sixty-two arrests made by the police department brought in $251 for the period between Aug. 15 and Sept. 1.

Current payroll, $2,093.38. The growth of the village means increased service and costs to the residents and there is no doubt that regarding efforts of the board to keep tax levies low, increases will be necessary hereafter.

A representative of C. H. Hansen Co., was present and when he presented tentative prices for the signs that are to be placed on the entrance pillars to the village, the members were rudely shocked. Previously plans for reflector buttons at a total cost of $200 were knocked out with a price of $486.64. Non-reflecting type signs would cost $200. An effort will be made by the village to obtain at a lower cost, a substitute sign similar to the lettering used on the curb street numbering signs.

A suggestion was made that Wm. Tackett will be glad to do his part in contributing to the installation of the pillars by paying part of the cost of the needed signs.

Village Ready To Pay Up All Special Assessment Debts Of Municipality

Through the issuance of $35,000 refunding bonds this week, the village of Arlington Heights will be able to pay in full all outstanding public benefits and all special assessments against village owned property. A representative of Henderson & Co., delivered the bonds Wednesday. The new interest rate is only 4 1/2%. A saving of approximately $15,000 was accomplished by means of the transfer of bonds at a discount for cash.

With the consummation of this deal the Arlington Heights school and village taxing bodies can be said to have completely recovered from the tax depression years.

Both the high school, and park district had previously settled their accounts with the village at considerable savings to the tax payers of the municipality.

Somewhat similar settlements of special assessments in Scarsdale and with many private lot owners is responsible for the present building activity in Arlington Heights. They required a lot of detail work on the part of Messrs. Meyer and Lorenzen.

The consummation of such settlements is made possible through the cooperation of the village treasurer's office.

No Muskies But Good Fishing Say The Weavers

Perhaps Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Weaver, of 2 S. Vail were lucky in the choice of a lake for their Labor Day vacation, but they spent four days at Spider Lake, 400 miles north of Arlington Heights, where they caught almost everything except muskies. They were so intent on their fishing that they did nothing else.

Des Plaines Police Fetch Companion Of Tavern Burglars

When Dan Quailly's Tavern, Rand road, north of Des Plaines, was reported as robbed Monday morning, Des Plaines police reported that they had questioned the occupants of a car in that vicinity early that morning.

Tracing the address of one of the girls in the car, sheriff's highway police apprehended her in her Chicago apartment. She resided with her brother and a friend who are believed to be the burglars who broke into the tavern and carried away a telephone instrument and its coin box, a cigarette vending machine, a midget radio and other articles. Anthony Nitti and Arthur Pauli are wanted for the theft. They hold a Joliet penitentiary record, according to the Cook county police.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

Originally erected in 1923, designed for a capacity enrollment of 250; northeast addition erected in 1928 made room for a total enrollment of 450; the patrons of the district will vote Saturday on a third addition which will enable the school to give instruction to 750 pupils. The present enrollment is 517.

Just As Old As Corrigan's, But Crate Gets To California

Corrigan pointed the nose of his antique ship toward California and landed in Ireland. Four Arlington Heights youths pointed the radiator of just another antique toward California and made it.

Whether the difference of marksmanship of one Irishman and four Arlington boys lies in the navigational power of numbers or the destination of a coeducational school, the four lads took off in an antiquated issue of Henry Ford last Friday and arrived at Riverside college, California, Tuesday.

They are Edward Dearie, Edward Rateike, Tony Scolaro and Richard Turner.

Arlington Young Men Injured In End Of Road

Max Kerber, 45, 112 West Wing Street, and Arthur Meyer, 26, 121 S. Evergreen St., both of Arlington Heights, were injured shortly after midnight Sept. 4, when their car left the pavement at the intersection of Arlington Heights and Dundee roads. Arlington Heights road ends at that point.

In a statement to the highway police, Kerber stated that he had been driving about fifty miles an hour but was slowing down to make the turn, which he was unable to complete. The car went into the ditch. They were picked up by Alfred Dietrich, who resides at the intersection, accompanied by Art Reimers, of Prairie View. Taken to the Northwest hospital, where first aid was given, Mr. Kerber was taken to his home, and later to the hospital in Des Plaines, while Meyer was taken to Cook County hospital and is in a dangerous condition with a skull fracture and internal injuries.

Raoul Peeters Is Elected Band President

The Arlington high band will complete its organization this week, and go into regular rehearsal schedule for the fall and winter season. Last spring, Raoul Peeters was elected to the band presidency for this school year. He is now a senior, and holds down the first chair in the trombone section.

A number of interesting trips are being planned for this year. It is hoped that the band can repeat its trip to the U. of Chicago to witness their football team and band in action, as well as a trip to a N. U. game. The interest shown in the symphony orchestra and sight-seeing tour of Chicago last year, prompts Mr. Costain to arrange to have the band attend an opera in addition to a symphony this year.

Concerts in Wheeling and Mt. Prospect, and at the Arlington swimming pool next spring, combined with assembly programs, football games and the annual spring concert will keep these young musicians busy for the entire school year.

Palatine Assistant Coach Leaves For Position In Milwaukee High School

Peter Vervloet, who has taught manual training and acted as assistant coach in the Palatine high school many years, left for Milwaukee Wednesday where he was called the previous evening to teach in the high schools of that city. Mr. Vervloet had applied for the position several months ago, but his call to service was not expected so early in the school year. The vacancy has not yet been filled.

"Best Place To Go Fishing Is The Local Markets," Says Wife Of Supervisor

Here is a noncensored story about Supervisor Chas. F. Grandt, told by his wife, who hesitatingly says, "Perhaps Charley would not want me to say it, but the best place to go fishing is to the local meat markets where the fisherman can buy his catches over the counter."

They went to Ford River over Labor Day where they expected to have some good fishing. "There aren't any up there," says Mrs. Grandt.

NOTICE TO ELK GROVE TAXPAYERS

The collection of the second installment of the 1937 taxes is now in progress. I will be at the Mt. Prospect State Bank during banking hours, except Thursday, Sept. 15, starting Monday, Sept. 12, to Saturday, Sept. 24.

Your cooperation means that the tax funds will be turned over promptly to local taxing bodies.
A. J. Kraemer,
Township Collector.

1100 School Children Return To Books

There are 1408 children attending the various educational institutions in the village of Arlington Heights. Over half are pupils at the high school which includes Mt. Prospect and farming territory. The elementary enrollment totals 492 and the parochial schools 398. The enrollment is divided as follows:

High school	517
North School	322
South School	170
St. James Catholic School	158
St. Peter Ev. Luth School	241
	1408

Start Tax Collections

The tax collection of the second installment of the 1937 taxes will be on full blast from now until the deadline for the country towns which is Saturday, Sept. 24.

With the second installment of the 1937 taxes out of the way, Cook county will be back on the regular schedule of tax collections.

The first installment of the 1938 taxes will be due in March of 1939, which will put the county back on regular schedule for the first time since the historic revaluation fiasco of 1928.

The township collectors are asking the cooperation of the taxpayers in making their payments to the home collectors.

Saturday, Sept. 24, will be the final day for the town collectors as all of their records must be posted in the county building on Sunday, Sept. 25.

Division 2 Teachers, Principals To Meet In Arlington Heights

Following the regular business session, to which the first part of this program will be devoted, an opportunity will be given to make a tour of the new North school building.

Fredrichs Orchestra Best Swing Band In Chicago Area

Best swing band in Chicago area. That was the award given Earl Fredrichs, Arlington Heights, in the finals of the 375-band contest in Chicago. One-hundred dollar and a free recording was given Fredrichs and his 11-piece orchestra last Thursday night at Nag Pier where the 47 bands that won honors at Soldiers' Field that week before competed for the final award.

The Chicago Daily Times sponsored auditions for several weeks weeding out the best from 375 entered in the contest. The swing jamboree at Soldiers' Field reduced the field of contestants from 80 to 47. Thousands of people jammed the park committing such property damage that the prize money was reduced from the original $1,000. Mayor Kelly's New Century committee was in charge of the affair. The contest was held "to find the best swing orchestra (semi-professional) in Chicago vicinity." Bands from as far as Wilkesborough, Pennsylvania, participated.

Mrs. Frank Whiting, Pioneer Resident Dies

Succumbing after a week's illness, Mrs. Frank Whiting, who has been a resident of Arlington Heights since 1895, passed away September 2nd at the age of 80 years, 1 month, 10 days. She was the wife of one of the pioneers of this community, Frank Whiting, who was born in Elk Grove in 1841, and who died Oct. 12, 1916.

The funeral of Mrs. Whiting was held Monday afternoon at the Lauterbach & Oehler funeral home, with interment beside her husband in Arlington cemetery. Rev. Kosack officiated.

Amanda Catherine Limbaugh, daughter of Valentine and Mary Limbaugh was born July 23, 1858, in New Bedford, Ohio. She accompanied her parents to Fontenelle, Iowa, where she married Frank Whiting Nov. 16, 1885. The couple later moved to Chicago and to Arlington Heights, the former Whiting home in 1895.

Mrs. Whiting was the eldest of a family of 11 children, consisting of five boys and six girls.

Deceased united with the Presbyterian church many years ago and was a faithful and active member since that time. She was a worker in the Ladies Aid society and enjoyed the friendship of a large circle of acquaintances.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral, were Mrs. E. Rowe, Arthur Rowe and Mrs. Laura Rowe of So. Bend, Ind. and Henry Limbaugh and family of Fontenelle, Iowa.

She is survived by five sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Sarah Austin, Lenox, Iowa; Emanuel Limbaugh, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Elizabeth Agard, Eureka, Kan.; Mrs. Emma Kilgore, Los Angeles, Calif.; Henry Limbaugh, Fontenelle, Ia.; Miss Celestia Limbaugh, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Irene McNeil, Arlington Heights; also a lot of relatives and friends who cherished her friendship dearly.

Village Official Enjoys Washington Even If He Neglected To Call on F.R.

Wm. F. Meyer, Arlington Heights village treasurer, returned home Sunday from a trip to the nation's capital, where he spent two days visiting the many places of interest in that vicinity. Included in them were Mt. Vernon, Jefferson's home, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Arlington cemetery and of course the capitol buildings.

Mr. Meyer did not call upon President Roosevelt as he took for granted that F. R. was so busy punishing conservative Democrats that he would have no time to shake hands with a Republican even if he was of the progressive brand.

The family spent one night on the battlefields of Gettysburg. They crowded nine happy days into the 2200 miles covered and the members of the Meyer family know a lot more about this country than they did before they left Illinois.

School Election Is Saturday Seek $95,000 Bond Issue

Tells Needs Of Ill. Schools At Lions Club

"Put at least a minimum requirement for educational opportunity in every school in Illinois so that every child in the state regardless of where he or she goes to school, will get a certain amount of education."

Such was the plea last Thursday evening before the Palatine Lion Club of Ben A. Sylla, superintendent of schools at Chicago Heights.

Mr. Sylla was the speaker of the evening and he painted a vivid picture of the needs as he saw them of the schools of Illinois.

He showed where Illinois ranked far down in the list of states in many educational standards, being 36th in the amount of state aid given to the schools.

It was the speaker's contention that the state aid to the schools should be greatly increased and that the aid should be distributed not as at present upon a per capita basis, but should be given to the schools where the need was greatest.

Mr. Sylla spoke of the poor school facilities and poorly paid teachers in some parts of the state.

The wider and more complete the education of the child of the present, the safer would be the country of the future, argued the speaker.

With a broad education that teaches the child to think for himself and select the best course of action for himself, the less danger from crackpot teachings and isms said Mr. Sylla.

The speaker's seriousness was interspersed with a lot of humor and hot shots, which kept his audience in good humor whether or not they agreed with all of his doctrines.

It talks such as given by Mr. Sylla that give an organization something to think about and which brings up some of the real problems of the day.

Noted Institution Missionary At Lutheran Church Sunday

In preparing its membership for the annual Mission Sunday, September 18, St. Peter Lutheran church of Arlington Heights has invited Rev. Wm. Greve to occupy the pulpit in both services on Sunday morning.

The guest speaker is well known in Lutheran circles for his many years of successful work in the county institution of Oak Forest. Here he and his capable wife are serving the spiritual and physical needs of hundreds of destitute old people. He is also visiting the patients of the tuberculosis institution.

While going on his rounds of mercy he has heard many a tragic story of human failure and degradation. His ministry has aided many despairing souls in getting a new grip on a life of Christian faith.

He will tell the story of his work among the sick and destitute in the German service at 9:30 and the English service at 11 a. m., taking his audience behind the scenes and giving intimate glimpses of his day by day experiences.

The church extends a cordial invitation to all its members and friends to hear this Christian worker.

Stray Bullet Misses Pair In Front Yard, Passes Through Window

Standing in the front lawn of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rauon, Prospect Heights, Lorene Seagle and Edward Busse narrowly escaped being struck by a .22 caliber bullet that was propelled through a window and was found on the living room floor Saturday morning. Although the source of the bullet was not known, it is believed that some hunter was guilty of carelessness and the shot had gone wild.

Vegetable Growers Of Nation To Meet In Cook County Next Year

The National Vegetable Growers Association accepted the invitation of Walter Sass at the annual meeting in Detroit last week to hold next year's meeting in Cook county. The date has not been determined, but it is expected to be held some time in December, 1939.

Sass and Louis Wettermann, representing the Cook county organization, attended the convention. George Stell also was present.

Prospect State Bank during regular banking hours.

First installments of 1937 real estate tax will also be accepted with a 4 per cent penalty added; also 1937 personal property tax which was due June 1st, 1938.

Wm. Annen, Collector,
Twp. of Wheeling.

The legal voters of High School District No. 214 will go to the polls on Saturday, September 10th, 1938, to ratify or reject the proposed expansion program now under consideration by the Board of Education of the High School District.

Two Polling Places

The high school district has been divided into two election precincts, Number One being for all voters residing within the district west of Schoenbeck road in Wheeling and Palatine Townships and those west of Busse Road in Elk Grove Township, same being that part of the district of which Arlington Heights is the principal population center.

Precinct No. Two is that part of the District located east of Schoenbeck and Busse Roads not included in the above and being that part of the district of which Mount Prospect is the principal population center.

Voters in Precinct Number One will vote in the Arlington Heights Village Hall. Voters in Precinct Number Two will vote in the Grade School on Central Road in the Village of Mount Prospect.

The Polling Places will be open from 12 o'clock noon until 8 o'clock P. M. Daylight Saving Time Saturday, September 10th, 1938. Voters must vote in the precincts in which they reside.

Three Propositions on Ballot

Three propositions will appear upon the ballot, a specimen of which appears elsewhere in this issue. Voters are cautioned to read these propositions carefully and vote consistently for or against as they deem advisable. In other words if you favor the proposition in general vote (x) for all three propositions, all of which must carry if the plan is to proceed.

Thumb-Nail Sketch of Proposed Improvements

Without dwelling upon the pressing need for more room at the high school, a fact pretty well known throughout the district, the following outline of the proposed improvements is given, all of which, however, is still in a preliminary stage and cannot take definite form until the election carries.

The total cost of the proposed addition and improvements approximates $172,727.00. The maximum bond issue asked is $95,000. The amount of the government grant, allotted August 13, 1938, same being 45% of the estimated cost of the improvement is $77,927.00.

The bonds are contracted for at 3 1/2% for the first $25,000.00 and 3 3/4% for balance, conditioned by the election only. The 3% and 3 1/2% being the rate of interest the bonds will bear.

Godfrey Larson Co., Inc., builders of the North school have the conditional architectural contract.

The proposed improvement consists principally of a two story fire proof wing adjoining the northwest corner of the present building to blend architecturally with existing structures. This wing to provide eight additional class rooms and two large study halls with a full basement for the cafeteria.

An additional heating plant to augment present equipment all of which is to be separated from the main structure in a separate unit to be placed north of the present building. All of the present building will be utilized, the remodeling consisting chiefly of changes in the heating plant, the shower rooms and the combining of the present auditorium and gymnasium into one large room with removable seating.

Fire safe construction to eliminate present hazards and permanently repair faulty roofs. The entire campus site will be landscaped to blend into a unified development plan that will permit future expansion without detracting from a proud setting.

While the Board of Education has adopted the usual provision that local labor will get first call to work on the new structure if built, local labor must also recognize the responsibility of the present generation to provide the best possible workmanship with best available materials for future taxpayers money. We are not living in an isolated community and a workman who insists upon his right to work in other communities cannot with impunity close the doors to skilled mechanics residing outside of the district in other words artisans who can deliver the high standard of performance required on a job of this type will have no difficulty in securing employment in his chosen field on this job. The job if it proceeds will be a union job and prevailing wage scales will be maintained to conform with public works requirements.

The present high school board of which C. L. Davis is president and A. C. Haake the secretary, has resolved upon a strict business administration of the district's affairs. They aim to keep the proposed improvements within the limits of available revenues and to maintain the present splendid financial status of the district handed down to them by previous administrations. The other members of the high school board are Ralph Gould, John Saynes, W. F. Meyer, Jr., Otto Baynes and Walter Hanauer. These men are all in accord in the belief that the communities represented in high school district No. 214 are entitled to require substantially within the present decade, the good schools are the leading contributing factor to such growth and increased property values. A careful analysis of the financial ability of the district to meet the additional obligations proposed in this election reveals that same will have a negligible effect upon individual tax bills.

Voters, patrons, friends, be sure to go to the polls on Saturday. Be sure that you are a qualified voter. Be sure that you vote consistently, three times for the proposition on your ballot or three times against according to the dictates of your own best personal convictions. In this enlightened community, let us settle our problems in the American way for the benefit of future Americans as well as ourselves at the ballot box, where majorities rule.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK, SEPTEMBER 11 - 17 SPONSORED BY ARLINGTON HEIGHTS FIRE DEPT.

As the Winter months approach when heating plants of various description, which have been idle during the Summer are pressed into service and the free circulation of air through open windows and doors reduced, fire hazards to property and personal injury from escaping gases and smoke from defective vents are, among other things, greatly increased.

As many of these hazards can be prevented, the Arlington Heights Fire Department proclaims September 11th to 17th Fire Prevention Week, during which all residents and organizations are requested to give special attention to heating plants by making necessary repairs and disposing of inflammable material permitted to accumulate.

The following are a few suggestions:

Has the furnace or boiler been cleaned; does it leak?
Has the smoke-pipe rusted out during the Summer?
Is the chimney clean; has it any cracks?
Get rid of the rubbish in the coal bin.

What was done with the old paint buckets? Throw them out.

Have you any cleaning naphtha? Do your cleaning outside and throw the surplus away.

Oily rags create spontaneous combustion; burn all of them.

Watch rubbish bonfires carefully.

Arlington Heights Wakes Up

Some time ago, in one of the City newspapers appeared an article describing Arlington Heights as a "quiet little town of five thousand souls who for forty seven weeks of the year make an event of the 352 and the rehearsal of the high school band" who only "waken from this lethargy for five hectic weeks, when the "ponies" come to town.

This was read and smiled over by many in the "quiet little town" who know that a newspaper man lives by the copy he produces, for it was good copy, but in smiling we sighed that alas, that's all it was. These "figures" seen stooping over gardens and pushing lawn mowers over spacious lawns, are now busy planning splendid programs for the Garden club meetings this winter, which will include some of the most outstanding horticulturists of the state as their speakers, or they may be serving on one of the committees of the Lions Club. As for pushing that lawn mower, that was only a good warming up for the Bowling League, to start so soon.

"The lady in the gray stone house, who rented to a high riding jockey," has come back refreshed from her vacation to spend many hours at committee meetings to assure the members of the Woman's Club that the year will be as fine as the last one. The Fathers and Mothers who attend the Parent-Teacher association meetings will be well repaid, for plans are under way for a helpful and interesting year's work. The Ladies' Aid must not be shirked, for the churches of Arlington Heights are a living force in this busy little town.

Mother has learned how to drill for Jr.'s geography quiz while she is busily dressing for the afternoon dessert bridge, and be home in time to have dinner on the table when that 5:32 arrives.

"The two teachers who rented their apartment to a gray haired trainer and his wife," are happy to be back, teaching in one of the finest new schools in the entire Chicago area, which was recently completed.

Are we asleep? Ask any of the people who attend any of the civic and social activities of the town. We are glad to have the ponies come to town, not to wake us up but to give us a chance to catch our breath before the busy season is upon us.

P. S. And that high school band is something to listen to.

Anniversary Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Helfers entertained a family group last Thursday evening to dinner in honor of their fifteenth wedding anniversary. Rev. J. H. Ellerbrake and Mrs. Ellerbrake of Elgin, Rev. George Ellerbrake and family of Barrington, Miss Ellerbrake of Harvey, were guests from out of town. Other members of the family from the village were also guests.

Horticulturist To Speak On Garden Club Program

The Garden Club of Arlington Heights is holding its first meeting of the year in the Village Hall on Sept. 14, at 8 p. m. He will talk on "Fall Planting and Landscaping" and will illustrate with colored slides. At the close of the lecture a question box will be held. All members and friends of the club are cordially invited to attend.

Woman's Club Year Book Goes To Press

The first meeting of the year will be held on Oct. 5th, in the club room at the Methodist church. Members are asked to keep in mind the rummage sale, when doing fall cleaning. The book club have been busy preparing the year's schedule and will hold their first meeting in October, also.

Mrs. Palmer Holds Business Meeting Of M. E. Ladies Aid

A joint meeting of the Fidelis and Gleaners Circles of the Methodist church was held Friday evening in the church parlor. The day was spent at three beautiful lakes, two of which are private. One lake is surrounded by mansions on the estates of L. E. Swift family, all personally known to Mrs. Sieburg. This lake also boasts one island-estate of enchanting scenic beauty.

Reservations for chicken dinner at noon were easily remembered, and after the tour, appetites were again satisfied at the Sieburg supper table, complete to the huge wedding cake with its significant dates, 1903-1907, the handcraft of Blue Ribbon Baker, which vied for first place with a beautiful Mexican pepper plant, the congratulatory gift of the Fred Sieburg family. LISTLESS CHILDREN
By C. W. Lussman of Sieburg Drug Store

Children are never listless without cause. When their bright energy flags, there is a reason, usually a serious one. A dull child is a sick child, whether he complains or not. The reason for listlessness may be simple, or it may be obscure. Only a trained physician can tell. Accept no home remedies, or the advice of friends. See your doctor when your child droops with seeming fatigue or weariness. Remember that really healthy children are tireless. Take all prescriptions to a trained and conscientious druggist.

Old Fashioned Prayer Meeting In Wednesday Broadcasts Over WCBD

A novel kind of religious radio program has been scheduled to begin this season, starting on Wednesday, September 7, and from then on every Wednesday, through the season. The speaker every week will be the Rev. John Clover Monsma, an ordained Presbyterian minister, but one whose activities have been strictly inter-denominational for many years. Dr. Monsma is widely known as a minister, journalist and author.

This new program will be known as the "National Mid-Week Service," and will practically be the old-fashioned prayer meeting on the air. Station WCBD, Chicago (1080 kilocycles), will carry the program. The time is 2:30 in the afternoon, daylight saving time (C. S. time one hour earlier).

Dr. Monsma announces that he will preach "the straight Bible without frills or fads." He hopes that especially the shut-ins, the discouraged, those who need a real and powerful lift, will be benefited.

Tomato Juice Is Named Great American Beverage
Illinois homemakers keeping in trend with modern times will use the next few weeks in stocking up on tomato juice in their cellars, says Miss Glenn Henderson, extension specialist in foods, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

For every can of tomato juice which sat on the grocer's shelf ten years ago, 72 now reside there, according to commercial reports. This is all because the great American appetite has suddenly hailed this new beverage for its color, its flavor, its healthfulness and economy, Miss Henderson says.

Based on experimental work at one of the state universities, directions are given by Miss Henderson for making tomato juice with a high vitamin C content. Only fully ripe, firm tomatoes, freshly picked, and deep red in color are used. Any with green, moldy or decayed portions are discarded, since an off-flavor may easily be detected in the juice.

The tomatoes are washed well and the cores removed. They are then steamed with their skins on for 10 minutes, the kettle being kept covered during the process. The tomatoes are handled in quantities of one to two gallons and any delays avoided during the canning process. The steaming is continued until the tomatoes are soft, but they are not permitted to boil at any stage.

The softened, hot tomatoes are then put at once through a cone-shaped sieve because it allows the least air to mingle with the vegetable juice. The hot juice is poured immediately into hot containers, or reheated to a temperature of from 175 to 180 degrees if it has cooled in handling. Boiling must be avoided.

One-half to one teaspoon of salt is used to each quart. The containers are filled full and sealed completely and then processed in a boiling water bath for 45 minutes. Spices will tend to darken the juice, Miss Henderson says, but she suggests that flavoring may be added at the last minute before serving the juice.

It is quite important from the standpoint of flavor and food value that the directions be followed carefully, she cautions. Homemakers will be able to attain the flavor of commercially canned tomato juice a little better by experimenting with different varieties of home grown tomatoes.

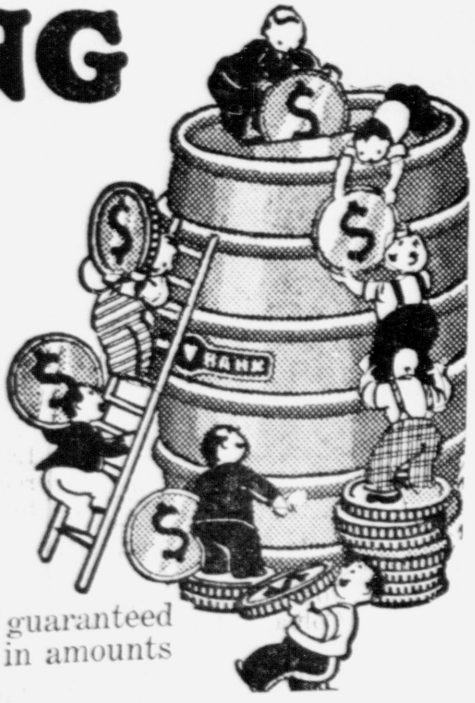

Another factor which may affect the flavor of the juice is the type of utensils used. Equipment of copper, brass and iron should be avoided and only knives of stainless steel used.

THE CHAPLAIN'S CHAT

By Captain Todd

WHAT ARE YOU TRYING TO DO? Somewhere I have read of an imagined ending to the parable of the Prodigal Son. It described the wanderer coming limping all those sorrowful miles home. Night fell as he was nearing the old land marks. His strength was nearly spent yet he struggled bravely on until at last he came to the road that turned into the home of his father.

There he had to give up, he fell face down with arms outstretched as if he would have gone further if he had been able. There the hired servants found him in the morning cold, stiff and dead. When they brought the old father out in the morning to see, do you think that he turned away? No, a thousand times no, he read in those outstretched arms what it was the wanderer had tried to say and with tears in his eyes and a great gladness in his heart he forgave all.

The parable is that the judgment of heaven will be fairer than the judgment of earth. The world has a cruel way of saying "What did he do?" Heaven asks "What was he trying to accomplish?" "What was the main direction of his life?" "What were his intentions?" So we must not condemn anyone for one mistake, one slip, one sin. We must see a man's life in its entirety. Jesus said to the thief on the cross, "That day shalt thou be with me in paradise." WHAT ARE YOU TRYING TO DO?

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 4.

The Golden Text was, "Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee... O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee" (Psalms 84:4, 12).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained: What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour" (Psalms 8:1, 3, 4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Scriptures inform us that man is made in the image and likeness of God. Matter is not that likeness. The likeness of Spirit cannot be so unlike Spirit. Man is spiritual and perfect; and because he is spiritual and perfect, he must be so understood in Christian Science" (p. 475).

Arlington New Grade School Gets Public Approval At Dedication

A community which builds as fine a school building as was dedicated in Arlington Heights Monday afternoon, is the same community which will complete the job by placing its approval for an adequate high school plan at the special election next Saturday.

IMPORTANCE OF EDUCATION

AS STRESSED BY NOBLE J. PUFFER IN DEDICATORY ADDRESS

Never was there a time when the educated person has been called upon to lead the world out of the blinding chaos in which it finds itself as now.

The towns about us are full of men of middle age and older who have suddenly awakened to find a new age upon them, and themselves without a job.

The youth of today must prepare to meet his tomorrow. He must not be caught unprepared as have been many of the fathers of our young people. Realizing the errors of the past in failing to visualize the changing trends and in preparing the men and women for merely one trade or occupation, the youth of today must be trained to meet any emergency or test that shall fall to his lot.

Sacrifices must be made. But there must be no sacrifice in education. Education has been referred to as "The eternal debt of maturity to childhood and youth."

It has been said that after health and physical safety, education is the first obligation of the State. There must be no sacrifices in education; there must be sacrifices for education; education which brings advancement in the relief of physical suffering, and peace to the troubled mind.

Nothing is more comforting than an expressed hope of the race in the future. Nothing more expressly manifests that hope in this community than the erection of this school building we dedicate here today.

It Happened Here

Her kitchen is redolent with the odors of hot spiced vinegar, of various herbs, of pickled onions, small and white like polished pebbles, and of the kettle of tomatoes simmering on the back of the stove; ladle in hand, bemused and rapt, she moves from table to sink, to stove—the Lady of Shalott, a curse is on her if she stays; she stirs, she tastes, she savors, reaches for a measuring cup of sugar, sets a little salt, lays a hand on the small graded cucumbers in a stone crock, pressing down the cherry leaves covering them; a colander holds sliced cucumbers, luscious, green-edged rings—she gives them a shake to hasten draining; she lifts a bunch of dill to rinse under the tap, turns to glance at a recipe, packs cucumbers, dill size, into quart jars and moves on winged feet to lift a kettle from the flame; she ladles this into that, screws covers on with a deft turn of the wrist, wipes and sets aside the finished jars; she gives attention to the spiced vinegar, ready for the sandwich pickles, counts covers and brine on the cherry leaf crock; she thinks absently about a cover and pushes the hair from her forehead with the fringed air of an artist—

"Tira lira!"—the phone rings—the spell is broken. . . . At this slack season between harvest and threshing, the folks used to take time off for camp meeting. They came from miles around in every conceivable rig and the dust settled thick on roadside weeds and hedges; they heard, and criticized, the best platform speakers. Bishops Taylor, Thoburn, Bristol and Quayle, and they were familiar with the great writers of the Bible, an education not often enough taken into account in grading their literacy. They brought their lunches in market baskets or hamper and often they ate in the cottages with relatives. Aunt Susannah Reynolds' cottage stood next to the preachers' stand and her table was famous throughout the country side for the dinners which caused even its sturdy planks to groan—platters of fried chicken and of steaming sweet corn cobs, bowls of sliced cucumbers and of succotash, tomatoes, sandwiches, jams, jellies, pies, cakes and pails of lemonade. Gentle and kindly Uncle Smith Reynolds could report on the morning's speaking; Aunt Susannah presided over her table with a hospitality whose graciousness must have been a sweet savor unto the Lord. S'Amuser.

Largest Snakes in World
The largest snakes in the world are the reticulated pythons of the Philippine islands, measuring 30 feet in length and 15 inches in diameter. The largest of this species ever found was 42 feet long.

How Vultures Find Carrion
For years it was believed that vultures scented their carrion miles away, but tests show that birds to have nasal organs of very low development. It is believed that vultures for many miles around find a dead animal merely by following any fellow-vultures that seem to be going somewhere.

EARLIER DAYS

Echoes of the past became a part of the dedication program of the Arlington Heights new elementary school Monday afternoon when four of the speakers were selected from Arlington Heights residents who had been a part of the local school system in past years. These speakers were Mrs. Nellie Noyes, best who taught the primary grades in the early 1880's; Theodore Militzer, who attended the Arlington Heights public school before the gray nineties and who served as president of the elementary school board and later of the high school board; Burton A. Noyes, an Arlington Heights boy who was president of the school board fourteen years; and Miss Irene Russell, who has taught in Arlington Heights schools the past twenty years.

MRS. BEST AN EARLY TEACHER

When Mrs. Best was a girl of 17 years she obtained her teaching certificate from County Superintendent of Schools Lane, with the help of Mr. Merry, who was principal of the Arlington Heights schools. Two years later she entered the local schools teaching grades one, two and three, 74 pupils in all. Three of the four rooms in the building of 1868 were all that were used in those days. Mrs. Merry taught the intermediate grades and Mr. Merry the upper grades. Among her pupils was Eunice Horcher, who in latter years herself had charge of the primary a number of years.

DAYS OF CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

Theodore Militzer recalled to the minds of many of the older people present that afternoon, their school days when he mentioned the school books that were handed down from parents to children and even occasionally from grandfather to grandson. These were days when there was considered little need to change methods of teaching and the school text books that were standard were Appleton Readers, Robinson's Arithmetic, Barnes History of the United States, Swinton's Speller and Harper's Geography.

Those were the days before electric lights, stated Mr. Militzer. Kerosene lights and lanterns to light the way over the planks that preceded sidewalks, were a part of every day life. The word of the teachers was law in the days when Mr. Militzer went to school and when was applied to other parts of the anatomy than the heads of the boys and girls. And the youngster who received corporal punishment at school was almost certain to undergo a second experience when he reached home.

Mr. Militzer urged that the public school system be kept away from politics and political control. "The public should take a greater interest in this school and show their interest by participation in elections whether or not there are opposition tickets," stated the former school head.

SCHOOL GROWTH ON INCREASE

Mr. Noyes became president of the school board in 1919 and served through 1933. During that period the high school was passing through its troublesome organization days. Before the courts approved the high school formation, the local district attempted to give a high school education to the graduates of the eighth grade. One of the four rooms of the old building was all the space that was available.

Later the collection of high school taxes relieved the financial burden upon the elementary school until the high school building was completed.

Mr. Noyes compared the growth of the local school system of the past with the present. The first school building was erected about 1867. Forty years elapsed before a second building was necessary, when the recently demolished east building was erected in 1905. Twenty years later the southside school was built and only ten years has elapsed to the time when the present school building became necessary. The growth of Arlington Heights will probably require additional school room on the south side long before another ten years has passed.

elapsd to the time when the present school building became necessary. The growth of Arlington Heights will probably require additional school room on the south side long before another ten years has passed.

TWENTY YEARS IN PRIMARY AND STILL HERE

When Miss Irene Russell received her first teaching contract from the local school board, that body inquired very solicitously whether she was certain that she was strong enough to teach out the year. Miss Russell in opening her talk Monday afternoon pointed to the fact that she had been able to teach 20 years. Miss Russell became a part of the school system in 1918 and she has followed the welfare of her pupils through the years, from the grades to the high school and thence to adult life. She has lost count as to the number of the children she started in school work.

Kennecott said that the oddest thing that she ever found in the nocket of one of her pupils were five dead fish. The organization of the Arlington Heights P. T. A. in 1930, in the mind of Miss Russell, marked a great advance in the local school system and she praised the cooperation of that organization since that time in all important school affairs.

HEALTH SERVICE IN OUR SCHOOLS

Miss Jackson E. Jackson told of the growth of health service in Arlington Heights since the days when public subscriptions were necessary to carry on the work until today it has become so recognized that public taxing bodies gladly provide the funds for the service that safeguards the health of Arlington Heights children regardless of the school they attend.

Miss Jackson is the head of a local health service that watches the health of 1500 school children through the checking of absences from school of three days or more and the routine of for three successive days in which contagion has broken out. Arlington Heights, stated Miss Jackson, has the record of less contagion per pupil than almost any other town in Cook county. The local dentists and physicians have been a great help in this work.

Big Squad Out For Football

An unusual amount of activity is noticeable at the high school at Arlington this year insofar as football is concerned. By far the largest squad ever to report for the Cardinals is on hand from which the various teams will be built. To date over fifty boys from the three upper classes have been outfitted.

Practically all of the Frosh and quite a number of the Sophs have not been called out as yet, and will have to be suited somehow or other. Undoubtedly there will be quite a good sized group who will not be taken care of for the equipment is lacking to handle many more than sixty boys. Quite a bit of new equipment has been added this year, yet several boys are doomed to be disappointed.

Perhaps this may make for even better teams than formerly. It will enable coaches Gross and Horvath to be more selective in those boys who will wear the suits and consequently cut down on the usual number of those who are just "out," and for no real purpose.

Assuredly competition for regular positions on the various teams will be keener than usual. That has already been evident on the first squad where several new boys will, without question, push some of the older boys out of their usual jobs.

In spite of the fact that there are eight lettermen available for positions this year, few who saw last year's games will recognize those on the 1938 squad. Quite a number of hitherto "unknowns" will find places in the lineup, and with plenty of competition available for every position another typical banner football season is to be looked forward at Arlington.

One of the hardest schedules in recent years is booked for the current season. It will be hard to find a single "setup" in the list of those to be played. Several teams will undoubtedly be much stronger.

Libertyville, Niles Center and Lake Forest are looking forward to one of their best years. Leyden is always tough, and with a new coach at the helm, they will be hard to figure. Crystal Lake, while a non-conference team, bids fair to have one of their strongest teams in years if their last year's coach, Owen Metcalf, is to be believed. With the well known Andy Pupils of last year's Notre Dame team as coach, they may be exceedingly tough.

Football at Barrington is on the road up again, rating them tough. Grant has a new coach this year and if his teams are as good as Coach Rasinski's, they will, as usual, command the respect of the entire conference.

The Eglin "B" squad is a non-conference warm-up, but will show one of the strongest teams on Cardinal schedule.

Rain Holds Up Tourney; Arlington May Play Tonight

Arlington Heights may play tonight in the Northwest Suburban Softball Tournament. Rain postponed the scheduled Tuesday and Wednesday when Arlington was to meet Evanston on the second game on opening night. The games are played at Rand Park under lights.

Palatine will face Wilmette in the first game on the second evening of the baseball tourney providing weather conditions are suitable. State Senator Charles F. Baumrucker (7th dist.) of River Forest is offering a gold trophy to the winner of the twelve team tourney for 12-inch fast ball pitching. The Senator, a baseball enthusiast and himself a player at one time, will pitch the first ball of the game. Further games in the tourney will be played next Sunday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

It is planned by the sponsors of the tourney to further sport interest among the northwest towns by a regular league next year. Other activities may be added.

Expect 300,000 Bowlers And $50,000 In Prizes In Red Crown Sweepstakes

Rules and prize play dates for the second annual Red Crown Bowling Sweepstakes were announced this week by officials at the Chicago headquarters of the classic, who emphasized three important changes in the nation-wide ten pin competition which smashed all bowling records last year.

Briefly the changes are (1) an increase in the value of awards from $34,000 to $50,000; (2) three classifications of competition based on ability with identical awards going to top-scoring teams in each class, and (3) a division of the country into four sections, so marked off that approximately the same number of teams will compete against each other in each section. Twenty-two hundred and fifty weekly prizes will go to each of the four sections, or a total of 9,000 prizes.

Bowlers must qualify in A.B.C. sanctioned league competition for the sweepstakes by December 17 to be eligible for the prize play, which will embrace three weeks of competition between January 12 and February 11.

It is expected that 300,000 bowlers will participate in the 1938-39 Red Crown Sweepstakes.

Red Wings Win Two Games Over Holidays

History repeated itself Sunday as far as the Higgins Boosters were concerned. Earlier in the season Geo. Schaefer held the Boosters to three hits and no runs, beating them 1-0. Sunday the count on the Boosters was three hits and no runs, but the Red Wings' total was somewhat changed. The locals got eight hits and won the game 11-0. For four and one half innings, it looked like neither side was going to score and both pitchers were doing a swell job on the mound.

When the last half of the fifth inning rolled around, somebody upset the applecart and the Red Wings scored five runs. Then they tamed down for one inning and in the seventh went on another scoring spree, scoring six runs to bring their total to eleven for the day.

Schaefer had one of his real good days, striking out ten men and walking nobody. The fact that the Red Wings played errorless ball behind Schaefer was one of the main reasons why the Boosters couldn't get any men in scoring position. Only two men reached second base and they only had three men left on base.

Joe Brodman opened the home half of the first inning with a walk, but he got no farther, as the next three men were easy outs. In the second inning H. Farnbach singled, but was out at third when he tried to go from 1st to 3rd on Reuse's single. Hertel fled out to end the inning.

Fagan opened the third with a single for the Boosters and then Schaefer turned on the heat, getting the next three men on strikes. In the fifth inning for the Red Wings, J. Brodman walked after two were out. Wahl also walked and F. Brodman was hit by a pitched ball. Schaefer then lined a triple up against the barn in right field, scoring three runs. Willert then walked, Farnbach safe on an error, Schaefer scoring, and a single by Reuse scored Willert. Farnbach was out when he also tried to score on the hit.

News From The Catlow Theatre

Romance and adventure are combined with hilarious results in "Port of Seven Seas," showing at the Catlow Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. The new picture stars Wallace Beery with Morgan, Maureen O'Sullivan, John Boyd and Jessie Ralph in the principal supporting roles.

"Having a Wonderful Time," Frank Morgan's plea for a romantic role has been answered in RKO Radio film "starring Ginger Rogers and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. depicts in interesting fashion the heterogeneous group of intellectuals at summer vacation camps with the one determined aim of enjoying a good time.

Stuart Erwin heads the featured cast of "Passport Husband" at the Catlow theatre on Tuesday. Double featured with "Passport Husband" on Tuesday is the latest "Hopalong Cassidy," Paramount picture, "Bar 20 Justice," starring William Boyd, and featuring Russell Hayden, George Hayes and Pat O'Brien.

Wednesday and Thursday brings to the Catlow theatre screen "Give a Million," with Warner Oland, Peter Lorre and Marjorie Weaver.

"Cold" Waves Barred
The average monthly temperature of Nassau, in the Bahamas, is 76 degrees. The reason for this high average is the Gulf stream, over which a "cold" wave would have to pass to reach Nassau.

The Tri County All Stars made their annual appearance at Recreation Park Monday, and went home on the short end of a 12-4 score. Schaefer pitching his second game in two days, set down the All Stars with four hits, all singles, striking out 13 men and walking only 1 man. Twenty-three strikeouts in two days is pretty fair country pitching. He also started the game off by striking out the side in the first inning and repeated the feat in the seventh.

The bombardment on Snyder, the All Stars pitcher began as early as the first inning. J. Brodman walked, Wahl singled and F. Brodman was safe on an error. Schaefer forced J. Brodman at the plate and Willert forced Wahl at the plate. Then H. Farnbach hit a long single to center, scoring all three runs. Schaefer was safe on an error, but Hertel struck out to end the inning.

In the fourth Scherwin walked, Hertel singled and both scored ahead of Wahl when Eddie hit a home run to deep center field. The All Stars picked up a run on an error, two passed balls and an infield out in the fifth inning, and set three more in the sixth on a walk, a single and an error. In the home half of the sixth, the Red Wings put over 5 runs on 5 hits.

Scherwin grounded out, Hertel hit a long home run to deep right center. A two base hit went sailing out to right field and when the dust cleared away, the stood Bud Peter, our general manager on second base. (Who said the old timers can't hit). Joe Brodman got his third walk of the game and then Wahl sent a triple to center scoring Bud and Joe and continued on home when the short stop fumbled the throw in. The Red Wings got one more run in the eighth for good measure on a walk and a single and a sacrifice fly. That ended the scoring for the day. Wahl and Hertel divided the hitting honors for the day, both collecting three hits which included a home run for each. On Sunday, Sept. 11, the Red Wings will be the attraction. This is a colored team and a very good one. They have played 72 games so far this season and have only lost 12 of them. This is one game you won't want to miss because this team really lives up to their name of Zulu Clowns. This team puts on a regular clowning act and there will be plenty of laughs in store for the fans. Let's have a big crowd out for this game next Sunday. Game starts at 3 p. m.

The lineup for the clowns is as follows: Fuka 2b, Kurto, if, Bumbo 1b, Guda if, Lanie c, Ruti p, Imbo ss, Kalomo 3b, Ibo cf. These are phonetic names of course, but clowns aren't particular.

Scouts Will Hold Powwow At Lions Park

Gim-O-Gash Tribe In 2-Day Program; Arlington Won In 1937

The week-end of September 16 to 19, will bring a large number of Boy Scouts of the Northwest Suburban Council, camping together at the Third Annual Gim-O-Gash Pow-Wow in Lions Park, north of Des Plaines.

The Gim-O-Gash Tribe, under the able leadership of Scoutmaster Cliff Taylor, of Des Plaines, has prepared an interesting program both for the participating Scouts and the visiting friends from the Northwest suburbs. The climax of the two day program is the presentation of the new famous Gim-O-Gash Tombstone at the Saturday night campfire.

Gim-O-Gash Tombstone was conceived and executed in 1935 by the sculptor and scout, Ed. Fritz. The stone represents the burial of the seven deadly sins of the old theologians, namely: Pride, Covetousness, Lust, Wrath, Gluttony, Envy, and Sloth. The two Scout emblems with their rising Mariner's Points represent the boy's rise through Scouting (with its leaders cooperating) and brought together by the Gim-O-Gash Tribe, which the Indian head symbolizes to finer citizens and better neighbors and members of their family communities.

The Tombstone was won in 1936 by Troop No. 3 of Park Ridge and in 1937 by Troop No. 7 of Arlington Heights. The desire to win this emblem of achievement has increased greatly, and it is expected, will cause the competition in events this year to be stronger than ever.

Points for the Tombstone are awarded to Troops for registered visitors. All youngsters and oldsters from seven to seventy are invited to visit this 2-day camp and have the double enjoyment of helping a Boy Scout Troop win the Tombstone and seeing a lot of fun. Picnic tables are provided for family groups. The Pow-Wow opens Friday night, the sixteenth. Follow the signs north, on River road in Des Plaines.

Arlington Softball Title Playoffs Will Be Held Sunday

Playoffs for the 1938 Arlington softball title will begin Sunday afternoon after the regular Red Wings baseball game. Gaare's and Rose-Los will meet in a series of three this Sunday and following Sundays depending on the outcome of the first two games.

Three rounds of baseball have been played during the season. It was understood that the winners of the three rounds would meet at the end of the season to determine 1938 champions.

Gaare's were undisputed champions of the second round but tied with Rose-Los for the first and third rounds. First and third round ties will be played this Sunday and the next. If Gaare wins both games, they will take the title. If Rose-Los should win either one of the two games, a regular three game series will be played for the championship.

Behind Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

New York, Sept. 6.—Business—The key to tomorrow's business may lie in last week's headlines from foreign capitals. While the majority of Americans spent the week with nothing more pressing than to clean up their work to get away for the 51st observance of Labor Day week-end, all Europe was tense as a new war scare gripped the continent. Hitler made an unexpected tour of inspection of Germany's fortifications along the Rhine occupied France and Switzerland no doubt to show he meant business in backin—Czechoslovakia for territorial autonomy. Heavy fighting occurred in China as the Japanese army renewed its attacks in the Hankow area. Italy passed a decree ordering all Jews who have taken up residence in the country since the World war to leave within six months, even those who have acquired citizenship. In Mexico City, President Cardenas opened the Mexican Congress with a denunciatory speech refusing demands of the United States for arbitration of payments for seized land, attacking the position of this country as an attempt to impose the will of the strong on the weak. Meanwhile, in America a fighting unit of the Navy was assigned to patrol the Atlantic Ocean for the first time since 1932 when the Naval Reserve Force was transferred to the Pacific.

Washington—Officials here continue optimistic over the business outlook believing that more definite statistical evidence of the steady rise now going on in many lines will appear within a few weeks. Whether business can be lifted bodily into considerably higher sales, however, depends pretty much on three factors, economists point out: 1. The buying response of the public to the 1939 model automobiles. 2. Expansion in the capital goods industries, iron and steel, machinery, transportation equipment, nonferrous metals, lumber, stone, clay, glass, and the like. 3. The ability of the textile industry, now booming, to maintain this pace; observers don't overlook possibility that present business may represent merely stocking up in anticipation of the new wage-hour law as it did in anticipation of NRA.

Business Speaks—There are 2,000,935 business concerns in America employing 39,644,000 persons, according to the latest Statistical Abstract of the U. S. These two million companies—large and small—are the creators of America's standard of living, highest in the world. That they are being subjected to attack by observers agreed is due in large part to their failure to tell the public about their objectives and activities. There are always two sides to a story, but to date the American public largely has heard only the version of business opponents. Therefore, an announcement in New York by the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company that it is cooperating with consumer or other public study groups caused quite a ripple on industrial waters as marking a new era in corporate—public relations.

The A & P, in announcing a $2,000,000 contribution to the Emergency Consumers Tax Council represented by women in some 100 New Jersey communities, told the public frankly that it is cooperating with "this and similar organizations dedicated to the protection of the consumer from further rise in the cost of living as a result of punitive or confiscatory taxes levied on independent merchants, chain stores, producers or distributors of any kind or type. We feel the great need is to help provide ways and means of bringing out the facts. The people will form their own opinions. To this end, we are planning to augment cooperation with consumer groups with a program of paid advertising in the near future."

Papers from coast to coast editorially are praising the move. Typical is an editorial in Newsweek, a magazine for publishers, which said in part: "Business has every right to present its side of the case to the public, just as has the politician. The A & P... has a definite interest in helping to expose punitive or confiscatory taxes levied on merchants, whether they be independent or chains, and in assisting in informing the public that the taxes must be passed on to the consumer. It does not conceal its motives and that in itself is worthy of praise. Let business tear a page from the book of the A & P and speak out."

Things to Watch For—"Fuzz-less peaches," a new, smooth variety said to ripen a week or ten days earlier than the ordinary kind... A device which locks two auto doors simultaneously when a key is turned in one... A cap for medicine bottles that shows when the next dose is to be taken; a tiny steel ball in a ribbed groove is moved to the hour or half hour mark as a reminder... A new type oil filter for automobiles, said to cut down consumption of oil and recondition the old oil, thus eliminating the need for frequent changing.

Chicago Has
New Music Series
Chicago's newest music venture, the Musical Arts Concert Series of the Adult Education Council, has been launched auspiciously with a "first family" of more than 400 subscribers, it was announced today by Ralph McCallister, director of the Council.

With the low price, "not for profit" policy of the Council, the high quality of the seven Saturday evening musical events at Orchestra Hall makes the series unique in the entire country, McCallister said. "The new series of world-renowned artists was arranged in response to requests of subscribers to the Council's piano series," McCallister explained. "Its purpose is to make available at low prices the best in music for Chicagoans."

"This is part of the Council's program of providing new opportunities for all adults interested in participating in cultural events. The piano series, now well-established in its third season, proved the soundness of this policy, since each year it has drawn more subscribers than any other music series in the city."

McCallister revealed that the Council considers the 400 subscribers who responded immediately to the concert series as "Chicago's musical 400" and added:

"Their leadership constitutes them as the first family of Chicago music lovers. We are planning to create an advisory assembly to aid in the Council's future musical programs and hope to have the 400 as its nucleus."

The distinction of opening Chicago's newest music series on October 15, goes to Rose Hampton, leading soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, whose success last season with the Chicago Civic Opera won her first place in the series.

The brilliant young Metropolitan Opera contralto, Anna Kaskas, who scored several successes in Chicago during the last two seasons will be the second artist, on November 12.

The Hungarian violinist, Joseph Szigoti, a favorite of Chicago audiences whose artistry has received world-wide praise, will be heard November 26.

The fourth event, on January 14, will be the Gordon String Quartet, considered the leading exponents of chamber music in America. Jacques Gordon, the director, formerly was concertmaster of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

Joseph Bentonelli, American tenor of the Metropolitan Opera, native of Oklahoma whose artistry carried him to world fame, will be heard on January 28.

The 20 voices of the famous Mozart Boys' Choir of Vienna will be heard on February 11. The group, under direction of Dr. George Gruber, will include a short musical play in their program.

The concluding concert, on March 25, will be given by "the greatest living 'cellist," Gregor Piatigorsky, who has received highest praise from Chicago critics.

The Council's subscription price range of $1.50 to $4.50 for the entire series of seven concerts in Orchestra Hall brings the cost per concert to from 22 cents to 64 cents.

The following young people made the trip—Betsy Dickhoff, Lorraine Schmidt, Jeanette Letzan, Marjorie Becker, Lillian Bieber and Shirley Deutschmann. Mrs. Robert Allison was the hostess at a bridal shower given at her home last Wednesday evening for her niece, Miss Rosella Austin. It was arranged as a surprise for Rosella, who thought she was to attend the shower for another relative.

The gifts for the bride-to-be were hidden in a "chiff-on-Matrimon" constructed by the hostess. She received all useful gifts including some lovely linens. The only duplicates were three drop-liners, suggesting perhaps an invitation to the group for coffee in the new home.

The evening was spent playing various games concluding with luncheon. Refreshments consisted of sandwiches, canteloupe sundae and coffee.

The group departed with the best of wishes to the young couple of honor who plans to be married on Sept. 17 to Mr. Peter Cavanaugh of Des Plaines.

A Trip to Canada

We left Wheeling Aug. 17 with my sister's family, the Otto Brauns of Chicago and arrived at Warton, Ontario at 4:30 a. m. the next morning, having covered 600 miles. There we stayed with my father's brother, Mr. Frank Bellmore, who has a log cabin at Howendale Bay. While there we went fishing and caught 12 black bass weighing 2-5 lbs. each.

Mr. Frank Bellmore has a 30 ft. boat equipped with a Model T motor in which we explored Round Island, Gull and Snake Islands from five to seven miles from main land.

Forty miles north of Warton we visited the Indian Reservation where we saw Chief Jones of the Chippewa tribe and visited his home in which the walls were lined with fox and raccoon skins with black bear skins for rugs. The chief is 86 years of age and expects to see many more moons, for his mother lived to the ripe old age of 101 years.

From there we headed for Niagara Falls, taking the route along Sauble Beach, all sand for five miles on the waters edge of Lake Huron. This route led us into St. Ampton, where Mr. Jos. Bellmore, Sr., visited his father and mother's grave.

We crossed Niagara on the Canadian side and went to New York. From there we crossed into Pennsylvania, crossing the Allegheny mountains, where we saw many turkey buzzards and eagles. We also visited the Kendall Oil wells and coal mines.

From there we went to Harrisburg, Maryland, where we went through Barbara Fritchie's home. We continued to Washington, D. C., where we visited the White House, the Smithsonian Institute, Aircraft building, Capitol building and Department of Justice building. We went up in the Washington Monument, 555 feet. We then started home through Maryland, Pennsylvania into West Virginia, where we crossed a toll bridge over the Ohio river into the State of Ohio, then back through Indiana into Illinois and Chicago, having covered 2,031 miles in all.

However, to my father and myself, the best town of all was when we arrived back in Wheeling.

WHEELING ACES DEFEAT OLD TIMERS
The Wheeling Aces played their annual game with the Old Timers, Sunday, Sept. 4, and won 5-4. A. Laurance pitched for the Aces and F. Pieper and L. Blocks for the Old Timers. The Aces had an off day, Labor Day.

Chrysanthemum Old Flower
The common chrysanthemum has probably been known for at least 2,000 years. In Japan, where it can be traced back many centuries, it is the national flower. Breynius in 1689 was the first European to mention the chrysanthemum. M. Pierre Louis Blanchard introduced the first large-flowering chrysanthemum into England in 1789. The plant was first introduced into America in 1847. The work of hybridization was first taken up by Dr. H. P. Walcott and later in the eighties by John Thorpe, who organized the Chrysanthemum Society of America in 1890, at which time hybridization seemed to have reached its zenith.

Hughes Tells Why Alfalfa Freezes Out

"It is a common experience that alfalfa may be started in the spring of the year and show fairly good growth during the winter time. A number of experiments and practical experiences of farmers have shown," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes, "in the recently completed soil testing schools that where adequate phosphate and lime stone have been supplied, that your alfalfa does not freeze out so badly. The reason probably is because the alfalfa has been adequately supplied with elements that it needs for food material. Perhaps we may illustrate it this way:

Young pigs feed on corn only and when they go into the winter they may not stand the weather so well as pigs that are fed plenty of milk, as a supplement with the corn. They are more alert and can stand adverse conditions.

Alfalfa roots that have had plenty of phosphate and lime will actually stretch when frozen and not be broken up and heaved out of the ground.

"It is an experience of farmers that alfalfa cut after the first week in September may not have so good a chance of going through the winter. The reason for this is that the crown and roots absorbed lack much of the food material that is in the tops late in the summer.

"If your hay is cut at all it might be cut later after it has died. It will not be quite so good hay, but it will have supplied the root system with food material that it needs to survive in the winter.

"The growth, if left on top of the ground may help hold the snow and furnish a covering so there will not be so much freezing and thawing. Our suggestions to farmers is that as a rule fall seedlings of alfalfa this far north can not be relied on.

"This is a time of year, however, when land should be gotten ready for spring seedings of alfalfa by getting applications of lime stone and phosphate on the ground thoroughly mixed with the soil and ready for seeding alfalfa in the spring.

"Lime and phosphate supplied to the top of the ground and not mixed with the soil will probably wash off to a certain extent and not be down in the ground in the place where it will do the most good. During the winter time we expect to hold soil testing schools to service the farmers who have difficulty with their alfalfa and clover crop."

PROSPECT HEIGHTS

by NAN RAUEN

Since our community is getting so large, and so many more folks are expected to move in, on or about October 1st, Miss La Verne Miller is going to help out with the news, and will take care of all the folks from MacDonald Road, to Willow Road. So here's hoping we can give the folks all of the news, from now on.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams made a trip to Elkhorn, Wisconsin, last week to visit the county fair. They had a great time "waddling" around as Harry put it.

Mr. and Mrs. Minor, and their son Arthur, have been vacationing for the past two weeks in Wisconsin and Indianapolis. We hope they had a very enjoyable and eventful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Krause and baby, Arlene, had Grandpa and Grandma Krause visit them for a few days all the way from Texas. They enjoyed their visit to their new grandchild very much.

On Saturday morning the Jennrichs and Sobwick's went on a fishing trip to Antioch. After fishing all day, they visited at the cottage of a friend to rest, and enjoy a delicious fish dinner.

Mrs. Rauen's club members came to lunch last Wednesday and spent the afternoon ridding her garden of weeds. The garden surely needed a good weeding.

Jayne Payne is back from her vacation to St. Louis, and we are sure she spent an enjoyable three weeks visiting her old friends.

Beverly Schaaf and Dorothy Danielson have begun their first lap, with three more to go at Arlington Heights high school, and from their very obvious excitement we are sure they are going to fully enjoy every last bit of it.

LaVerne Miller, Arthur Miner, Wilbur and John Rodgers are the other young folks in our community who are again attending high school at Arlington Heights. We wish you all lots of success, and hope that graduation does not come too soon for any of you.

Greetings have been received from Mrs. East the "Pioneer" Prospect Heights, who is visiting far away in Nottingham, England. She is visiting all her relatives, and from the folks who have a great deal better of her trip, and that she is enjoying herself immensely, and does not know just when she will start back across "the pond" to these good old United States.

Lorene and Jim Neagles went on a dove hunting trip down to Illinois, where they visited Lorene's sister Nell. They left Saturday, accompanied by their friend Ruthford Grace, of Lake Bluff, Illinois, and returned very early Tuesday morning, with a grand catch of forty delicious doves. We know, because we enjoyed a nice dinner of them.

John Walworth, brother of Mrs. Steele visited her last week from Brown county, Indiana. Dick is always glad to see him as he is her only brother.

Little Jerry Moeller gave his parents quite a scare last Friday evening when he went into a convulsion, which was caused from infected tonsils. We are glad to report that he is beginning to be his gray little self again, now that he is feeling much better. We sincerely hope that this does not happen again.

WHO'S WHO

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Krause, moved into their Cape Cod home on MacDonald Road, one year ago this month. Since their arrival in our community they have increased the family by one. Their baby daughter, Arlene, was born four months ago.

They have no other children, and no other pets.

Mr. Krause is an all around electrician and is at present employed by Hatfield Electric Co., in Chicago.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Krause were born and educated in Chicago.

Arnold's hobby is tinkering around with anything mechanical, and he has a regular work shop in the basement.

Nathalie's hobby is sewing and embroidering.

Mr. Krause had the misfortune to have his car break down way over on Algonquin Road, and he had to walk over to Des Plaines to get the train to Mount Prospect, and then the Police Car home, nothing less. Now that the car is fixed, we hope that it will stay in good condition and that Mr. Krause will not have to take such a round about way to get home.

Nathalie Patranc, on her return home she brought Natalie along, to visit out here for a week. Natalie had such a good time, and enjoyed her visit so much, that she just did not care about going back to Chicago. Come again Natalie since you enjoyed it so much.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson entertained their very good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Roger from Chicago on Saturday. The men folks worked out in the garden and the ladies had a nice time indoors. The Jacksons also have an increase in their family in the form of a collie pup, whom they have named "Tonto". They just got him a week ago Wednesday, and of course we like he decided to investigate the neighborhood on Sunday evening, and he wound up by spending the night at the Rauen home and the next morning was returned to his own home. We hope that should he decide to stray again that he will go any further than he did the first time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Danielson entertained Viki's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman and family from Western Springs, Illinois. During Sunday afternoon some more visitors arrived, they were Mr. and Mrs. Hinz and Mr. and Mrs. Meyer from Chicago and they all had a grand time out in the yard. Viki served a delicious picnic supper outdoors.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Guenther, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gunther, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Panzer, of Chicago, surprised the Rauens Sunday afternoon. Mother Rauen and Lillian also spent the afternoon and evening at the Rauen home. From all the hilarity everyone seemed to have a good time.

We are sorry to report that Ed. Solwick got off his diet and is again back on the sick list. Ed. you bet stick to the diet, and obey the doctor, or you won't be able to bowl this winter.

The Neilsens returned from visiting friends in Chicago the other evening in time to find some other friends out in their garden enjoying the tomatoes.

Mrs. Sobwick, Sr., and the two Miss Sobwicks were guests over Labor Day, at the Sobwick home. We know they had a good time, as they always do.

Watch for the announcement of the next meeting of the Improvement Association, which will be some time this month.

High Bids May Force Smaller School Size At Libertyville

High bids for Libertyville's new Central school may force elimination of kindergarten and music rooms if lower bids are not received by September 12. The proposed $90,000 structure was originally bid at too high a price, and the building plans may have to be reduced in size. W. P. A. has granted $40,000 toward the building. New bids will be opened on Monday, September 12.

Starrett Unravels Mystery On Ranch "West of Cheyenne"

Exciting action races across the screen of the Arlington Theatre Sunday and Monday, where Charles Starrett's newest punch-packed Columbia film, "West of Cheyenne," opened yesterday. The authentic western mood is heightened by atmospheric music, and particularly by the three range numbers of the Sons of the Pioneers. All three, "Night Falls on the Prairies," "The Distant Blues," and "Over the Trail," should prove popular with lovers of this type of music.

Mystery shrouds the story at the outset. Starrett rides into a riddle when he dismounts at Bar-W Ranch. Iris Meredith, daughter of a land agent portrayed by Ed Le

Saint, bars his way with a rifle. Starrett wins her confidence and learns that two former owners of the property have been mysteriously slain. He decides to stay around and join the fun. And there's plenty of fun, excitement and thrills in store for him.

In addition to the principals named, Bob Nolan, Dick Curtis, Pat Brady, Eddie Cobb, Art Mix, Ernie Adams, Johnny Tyrrell, Jack Rockwell and George Chesbro give good supporting performances.

It isn't the reputation you gained for safe driving last year or last week that counts, it's your driving today—right now—that makes safety records. Safety precautions must be observed every minute; they must be eternal. They cannot be exercised at a few intersections or on certain hills; they must be kept up all the time you are behind the wheel. The fact that you know the curves in a road or are familiar with its various hazards is a very poor excuse for violating all safety laws. Be safe all the time. The one time you neglect to be safe may be the time you will have a very serious accident.
